Travelling to Dublin

Easy access:

Dublin International Airport serves 60 airlines, with 179 routes, and daily flights to all major UK and European cities. Ferry services from Dublin and Rosslare ports also make it easy to bring in equipment and goods from the UK and beyond.

Easy to get around

Dublin is a small and compact city, with a great transport infrastructure. Excellent road, rail and tram network, over 10,000 taxis (with very friendly drivers!) and a fantastic 'dublinbikes' scheme.

Easy-going friendly people!
